Program Advertisement ~ 2020

It is our pleasure to bring Alumni Drum and Bugle Corps music to the greater York area and we hope we can count on your support in this endeavor. Our program will be distributed at our indoor show held on the campus of Penn State York in The Pullo Center, and will recognize each of the evenings performing groups as well as highlight our many sponsors and advertisers, like yourself. We will be hosting some of the best alumni corps from the East Coast! By placing your ad with us, your company's name will not only be viewed by local residents, but will travel outside of this region showing your support for the musical arts. Please join us in bringing back an outstanding Drum and Bugle Corps activity to the York area! The Lancers Alumni Drum and Bugle Corps is a 501c3 organization.
